WELCOME

Welcome to The Rocks Village Bizarre, proudly presented by Sydney Harbour Foreshore Authority. Every Friday night from 7 November to 19 December, The Rocks will be transformed into a world of mystery, magic, music and markets.

Catch a glimpse of a colossal white rabbit peeping over rooftops.

Encounter captivating characters around every corner. Gaze through a world Behind the Windows.

Satisfy your foodie side. Gravitate towards The Gin Mill Social, graze on mouth-watering morsels at open-air food stalls or snag a cosy corner seat.

Meander through the Village Bizarre Night Markets, and explore a unique curation of Etsy stalls each Friday. Adopt an alter ego for the evening with a daring and dazzling makeover at the Parlour Bizarre.

Expect the unexpected at The Rocks Village Bizarre.

THE VILLAGE BIZARRE CLUBHOUSE WITH PETERBAECKERLIVE

Join Berlin-based performance artist, dancer and DJ Peter Baecker as he transforms a local shopfront into an interactive art installation.

Gaze into a world Behind the Windows to see him perform 'sleep installations', catch his blogs and vlogs from around the curious corners of The Rocks and drop into The Clubhouse during the week for a Rubik's cube or Lego workshop.

6.30pm – 10pm, every Friday
(The Clubhouse opens 11am – 2pm,
Mon–Fri)
6–8 Atherden Street
Free

The Gin Mill Social

THE GIN MILL SOCIAL

Step into the Gin Mill Social. Behind the iron walls is a lively 1920s juke joint, where the drinks are flowing, the band is swinging and the air is electric.

The Rocks Brewing Company will keep the bar stocked and whistles wet with cold craft beers, ciders and cocktails. You never know where the night will take you, as burlesque and vaudeville performers from Slide burst into the spotlight when you least expect it.

ENCOUNTER ART AROUND EVERY CORNER

Inspired by the Kaleidoscopic Kook

Be delighted around every turn with the Kaleidoscopic Kook, an urban art-loving Pied Piper always on the hunt for inspiration.

The Rocks Village Bizarre is a plentiful playground of art, installations and creative collaborations that will surprise and amuse everyone from serious art-lovers to curious kids.

ART INSTALLATION

Be surprised and inspired by a range of innovative and thought-provoking art and design installations around The Rocks.

UTS OPEN HOUSE

Be inspired by the best and brightest young designers at the UTS design lab on opening night of The Rocks Village Bizarre.

Six groups of talented third-year UTS design students will showcase their most creative and cutting-edge projects, from installations to interactive objects.

BEHIND THE WINDOWS

Window-shopping will never be the same again! Selected shopfronts in The Rocks will become the stage for a diverse range of local and international performers.

MELANIE PALOMARES

Go to a place where ridiculous meets mundane. Saturated in colour and frozen in fantasy, one woman negotiates the notion of 'sink or swim', performed against the backdrop of the bold men's fashion store, Joe Bananas.

6.30pm – 9.30pm, every Friday
Joe Bananas, 103 George Street
Free

RAKINI DEVI – KALI MADONNA

Stand in awe at the Urban Altar of Rakini Devi, a surreal world where pop art meets religious iconography. Her stunning hybrid performance art has been presented in New York and Mexico City, and draws intercultural inspiration from such deities as the Mexican Virgin Guadalupe and the Hindu goddess Kali.

6.30pm – 9.30pm, every Friday
95 George Street
Free

PAUL CORDEIRO

Let this entrancing chameleon beckon you closer with his hypnotic movements. Internationally acclaimed dancer and physical performer Paul Cordeiro will bring his unique window performance to the shopfront of iconic Amsterdam jean label, Denham.

6.30pm – 9.30pm, every Friday
Denham, 77 1/2 George Street
Free

NATALIA LADYKO

Step closer to the UGG shopfront to investigate the curious character lighting up its window – Natalia Ladyko. Watch her perform short movement pieces in response to the space, inspired by 1970s disco, rock'n'roll and rebellious punk.

6.30pm – 9.30pm, every Friday
UGG Since 1974, Shop 2.02,
140 George Street
